

Chapter 1: Thinking Like a Sociologist

Test Bank

Type: multiple choice question

Title: Chapter 01 Question 01

1) The concept of the sociological imagination was originated by _____.
a. Harriet Martineau
b. Karl Marx
*c. C. Wright Mills
d. Max Weber

Type: multiple choice question

Title: Chapter 01 Question 02

2) _____ thinkers promoted secular (nonreligious) institutions, the rule of law, free economic markets, and mass literacy.
*a. Enlightenment
b. feminist theory
c. functionalist theory
d. common sense

Type: multiple choice question

Title: Chapter 01 Question 03

3) Sociology could be said to have had emerged as a result of the development of _____.
a. Weaponry
b. Philosophy
*c. Technology
d. Chemistry

Type: multiple choice question

Title: Chapter 01 Question 04

4) _____ wrote that "social facts must be studied as things, as realities external to the individual."
a. John Porter
b. Max Weber
c. Max Horkheimer
*d. Émile Durkheim

Type: multiple choice question

Title: Chapter 01 Question 05

5) The _____ are the class of modern capitalists, owners of the means of social production, and employers of wage labour.
a. proletariat
b. lower class
*c. bourgeoisie
d. working class

Type: multiple choice question

Title: Chapter 01 Question 06

6) _____ authored The Protestant Ethic and The Spirit of Capitalism.
a. Émile Durkheim
*b. Max Weber
c. Lewis Coser
d. Auguste Comte